

Give Sponsorship Support or Donate to Redna Menling Bon Nuns

Following the Bon tradition, H.H. Menri Trizin 33rd determined that nuns must live by traditional monastic rules and be given educational opportunities available to monks. In 2010 he established Redna Menling Nunnery, with its own Dialectic School and good study and living facilities for their rigorous training. The first and only Bon nunnery in India, Redna Menling (meaning Land of Precious Medicine) houses a rapidly growing number of girls and women from Tibet, Nepal, and other borderlands. They are diligently expanding their knowledge and skills, so that in the future they can be effective religious leaders, teachers, and professionals. Your help is urgently needed so that these women may be empowered to serve Bon and others in the future. Please help them as much as you can.

$400 per year provides for the daily needs and education of a Bon Nun for one year.

However, contributions of any size are welcome. All sponsorship and donation money will be used for the welfare of all nuns at Redna Menling.
