

How to Support a Project

The Menri Monastery complex is designed and built in traditional Tibetan style, but is modern technology insures that it functions efficiently. Surely history will remember the Abbor of Menri (Menri Trizin 33rd) as the "master architect of Menri Monastery", but in the meantime, as he grows older, his efforts are accelerated to finish his visionary work. Here are eleven additional projects that the Yungdrung Bon Monastic Center has identified as vital to the wellbeing, safety, and growth of this important center for Bon culture. some of these projects are underway, and others are awaiting funding in order to begin. Projects will be removed from the list as they are funded. We thank you for all your help and support!
